Press Release: Investigation into incident on Wesleyan University's Campus

May 1, 2013

On Tuesday, April 30, 2013 Wesleyan University released a statement to its students advising them that two of its Public Safety officers may have been involved in viewing and possibly recording a student while in their residence.

The Middletown Police Department was contacted on April 8, 2013 regarding the possible videotaping of a Wesleyan student. The Middletown Police Department has been in contact with Wesleyan University and the victim. The Middletown Police Department's Special Investigation's Unit is conducting an investigation at this time, which includes reviewing the evidence. To protect the identity of the victim we will not be releasing any further information such as where the incident took place.

At this time we have no further information and will not be answering any additional questions.
